The image shows the interior of a car, specifically the front seats and dashboard area. The seats are upholstered in a dark, quilted leather with the word 'ABARTH' embossed on the headrests. The car is parked at night, and through the open rear door, a man in a dark suit and a woman in a black dress and hat are walking away from the car towards a brightly lit city street. The scene is illuminated by the warm lights of the city and the cool interior lights of the car.
